Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sunday — October 2, 2022
Gospel Reading: Luke 17:5—10

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." The Lord replied, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. "Who among you would say to your servant who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here immediately and take your place at table'? Would he not rather say to him, 'Prepare something for me to eat. Put on your apron and wait on me while I eat and drink. You may eat and drink when I am finished'? Is he grateful to that servant because he did what was commanded? So should it be with you. When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.'"

Notes from Parish Council on Tuesday — September 13, 2022

Items we are addressing:

Father Eric along with the Chairs of Parish Council, Building & Stewardship committee will have a town hall meeting this fall to discuss the status of the new church building project.

The office is taking bids to replace the overhead lights, in the main worship space, with LED lighting.

Plans to reinstate the collection basket next month.

Father Eric will be attending a meeting with the Bishop to discuss reinstating the precious blood during Mass.

Hoping to start taking pictures for the new directory in October. The profits from the Ladies Auxiliary Sale of See's candy, along with a small charge per copy, will be used to defray the cost of the directory. Two parishioners are donating their time to take the pictures.

Norm & Kathy Eckert have been nominated to receive the Diocesan Gartland award. The award is an honor bestowed by the Diocese of Savannah on people who have given distinguished service to the church.

The office will be looking into smoothing out the pebbled ramps leading into church to make it easier for disabled parishioners.

Seven members will stay on the council. New election will take place in the fall of 2023 with 3 year Terms.

Rosary rally Saturday — October 15th at Noon.

Our next Parish Council meeting November 7th.
